

Postgraduate course in Sports Law (2013)

Duration: 200 hours – one year from May/Nov

Description: This course focused on football, the most developed sport in Argentina and in the world, provides a systematic study of all the subjects related to Sports Law and in particular concerning the norms and regulations both, conventional and legal, that rule it and the existing jurisprudence on the subject.

Methodology: theoretical, namely based on “case method”.

SYLLABUS:

First Module:

Sport Structure and Federative Organization (20 hs)

Director of the module: Doctor Gustavo A. Abreu

Second Module:

Sports and Labor Law (36 hs)

Director of the Module: Mag. Gabriel C. Lozano

Third Module:

Transfer of Sportsmen (36)

Director of the Module: Daniel Cravo Souza, Lawyer

Fourth Module:

Juridical Regulation of Sportsmen Agents (16 hs)

Director of the Module: Mag. Ariel N. Reck

Fifth Module:

Juridical Regulation of Sports Marketing and Sponsorship (24 hs)

Director of the Module: Doctor Gustavo S. Schotz

Sixth Module:

Sports and Taxes (20 hs)

Directors of the Module: Specialists Diego Fraga and Sebastián Vázquez

Seventh Module:

Sports and Civil Liability (16 hs)

Director of the Module: Doctor Carlos A. Calvo Costa

Eighth Module:

Sports and Criminal Law (16 hs)

Director of the Module: Doctor Francisco D'albora (h)

Ninth Module:

Crisis of Sport Clubs (16 hs)

Director of the Module: Doctor Vicente Aznar